Washington State Farm Service Agency is looking to hire and train Farm Loan Officers!

As a Farm Loan Officer with the United States Department of Agriculture Farm Service Agency (FSA), you are able to truly make a difference in the lives of farmers and ranchers. This career path is loaded with opportunities to meet new people, learn essential skills and cultivate a deeper passion for agriculture! Loan Officers work closely with farmers and ranchers to provide financial assistance. A career with FSA enables you to develop unique and creative strategies for customers success.

Maybe a career in government service hasn't been on your radar, but few work environments are as personally satisfying as the Farm Service Agency. With competitive wages and excellent benefits, FSA is a rewarding place to invest your time and talents. FSA's excellent training program will prepare you for this exciting career. There's no need to wait!
