

2020-2021 WASFA Eligibility Verification

Your 2020-2021 application for financial assistance is under review. Before we can determine your financial aid eligibility we will need to verify some information. Please check the appropriate box(s) and return this form along with supporting documentation as soon as possible:

Student Name: _____ Student ID#: _____

E-mail: _____ Phone: _____

Return this form along with appropriate documentation to avoid delays in receiving your financial aid.

Check the appropriate box below:

- Attach a photocopy of your Social Security Card if you have applied and have been approved for Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals. Example of DACA SSN:

- If you don't have a DACA SSN we will establish an internal number in place of an SSN after you complete a W-9S form. You can contact our office for the form. You will still be considered for both State and Institutional funds.

- If you have an Individual Tax Identification Number (ITIN) you will need to provide a copy of the IRS letter you received as well as complete form W-9S. You will still be considered for both State and Institutional funds.

If you would like to learn more about your funding options, including loans that you may be able to apply for, please come in and meet with a Financial Aid Coordinator.

We will gladly make photocopies if you bring this information to our office in the Student Services Building.
