TITLE: Assistant Professor of Psychology

COLLEGE/SCHOOL/DEPT: Arts & Sciences

DATE PREPARED: August 2020

REPORTS TO: Department Chair

FLSA: Exempt (Regular Rank, 9-Month Contract)

POSITION SUMMARY:

The Department of Psychology at Heritage University invites applications for an Assistant Professor position to begin in August 2021. The ideal candidate will be able to teach courses in clinical/counseling psychology, though their degree need not reflect those exact specializations. We are particularly interested in candidates who have experience working with diverse student populations and exhibit innovative approaches to teaching, undergraduate research, and advising.

The successful candidate will teach 12 credit hours (4 courses) per semester, including lower- and upper-level psychology courses, such as Psychology of Adjustment, Behavior Modification, Abnormal Psychology, and other courses in their area of expertise. Class sizes tend to be small (approximately 15 students). PhD strongly preferred, but candidates who are ABD are encouraged to apply, as are those who have relevant master's degrees if they also have teaching experience.

Heritage is a small, private, rural college located within the Yakama Nation, 20 miles south of the city of Yakima. Heritage is a Hispanic-Serving Institution (HSI) and home to many Native American students, particularly from the Yakama Nation. As a mission-driven university with a culturally diverse student body, Heritage embraces "transformational student-centered education that cultivates leadership and a commitment to the promotion of a more just society." We encourage applications from members of underrepresented groups as well as individuals who have experience working with diverse student populations. Candidates should demonstrate how they will contribute to Heritage University's mission through excellence in teaching, mentorship, research, and/or service. Enthusiasm for working with a diverse population of students is essential.

Studies have shown that candidates are less likely to apply for jobs if they do not meet every listed qualification. We are most interested in finding the best candidate for the job, and that candidate may be someone who comes from a less traditional background. We encourage you to apply even if you do not meet every one of our qualifications listed. If you are unsure whether you meet the qualifications of the position, please feel free to contact us to discuss your application.

Candidates should submit a cover letter, vita, teaching statement, diversity statement, unofficial transcripts, and three reference letters to humanresources@heritage.edu by October 18, 2020. The diversity statement should explain how you have demonstrated your commitment to educational equity and how you would help facilitate a diverse and equitable community at Heritage in your teaching, mentoring, outreach, research, and/or service. The teaching and diversity statements should be no more than two pages each. Please contact Blake Slonecker, Interim Chair of Psychology, with questions at slonecker_b@heritage.edu.
